Potosi R-3 School District Announces the Promotion of Mrs. Loretta Bouse to Assistant Principal at Trojan Intermediate School

Potosi, MO – February 21, 2025 – The Potosi R-3 School District is proud to announce the promotion of Mrs. Loretta Bouse to the position of Assistant Principal at Trojan Intermediate School. Mrs. Bouse, a lifelong resident of Washington County, and the school community is a proud graduate of Potosi High School’s Class of 1988.

Mrs. Bouse has dedicated over 20 years of service to the Potosi R-3 School District, holding a variety of roles throughout her career. Her commitment to the district and its students is reflected in her work as a paraprofessional, teacher, and most recently as the Process Coordinator/Psychological Examiner. Throughout her career, Mrs. Bouse has demonstrated unwavering dedication to student growth and success, making a significant impact on the lives of students

"I am honored to have been able to work for Potosi R-3 the past 20 plus years," said Mrs. Bouse. "Drawing on my extensive teaching experience, I am deeply committed to cultivating an engaging and supportive learning environment where students and staff can thrive. Throughout my career, I have prioritized student growth and actively contributed to the school community. In my new role, I look forward to making a lasting impact and helping Trojan Intermediate School reach new levels of success."

“We are thrilled to have Mrs. Bouse take on this new leadership role,” said Alex McCaul, Superintendent of Potosi R-3 School District. “Her deep ties to our district, along with her passion for education, will play a key role in supporting our students and staff as we continue to grow and succeed.”

The Potosi R-3 School District is excited to have Mrs. Bouse take on this important leadership role and is confident that her experience, passion, and commitment to excellence will help Trojan Intermediate School continue to provide a high-quality education for all students.

For more information or inquiries, please contact Alex McCaul at 573-438-5485.
